

Turbury Dressage Rules 2018

- The organisers accept NO responsibility for loss or damage, injury, illness or accident to spectators, exhibitors, horses or riders, or their property as a result of attending this event. Please take appropriate care to prevent such accident or loss to yourselves and others.
- All competitors must hold a suitable personal and third party public liability insurance policy.
- Competitors are advised to have their horse's passports with them.
- Riders must wear hard hats to the current British Standard: Hats which bear EN1384 or BSEN1384 on their own will not be permitted, however EN1384 or BSEN1384 ALONG WITH one of these other standards will be permitted, standards include PAS 015 (1998 or 2011), VG 01.040 (2014-12), ASTM F1163 (2004a or 04a onwards) SNELL E2001 or E2016 and AS/NZs 3838 (2006 onwards), securely fastened with chin strap, at all times when mounted.
- All horses/ponies must be 4 years and over.
- No Stallions/Colts.
- All dogs must be kept on a lead at all times and please clear up after them and take home. Dog worrying of livestock is a serious offence.
- Please keep the showground tidy. No mucking out on the showground please use muck trailers and please take all litter home with you.
- Do not enter stable blocks with or without your horse or interact with livery horses elsewhere on the site, in the interests of bio-security and security.
- No exercising of horses and ponies in the parking areas, in the interest of safety, please use the designated warm up ring only.
- Dress code – show or hacking jacket, shirt & tie or stock, beige jodhpurs, long or short boots & gloves.
- Classes may be split or amalgamated at the organiser's discretion. Horse and rider combination restricted to 2 tests per day.
- No entering or leaving car park during a test.
- Competitors can only collect points for one level however can do another level as a warm up (no points awarded).
- If won a championship already at intro the competitor may not collect points for that level again. Moving forward into 2019 those who have won a prelim as well will not be able to collect points for that level.
- All competitors will get 1 point for attending the competition.
- Making an entry constitutes acceptance of the rules. No entry without fee.
- The Judge's decision is final. Any formal objections to results should be made in writing to the Secretary accompanied by a deposit of £10, which will be refunded if the objection is upheld.
- Any horse/rider combination wishing to withdraw must do so by the Wednesday prior to the Event.
- For times please see Turbury Equisport Facebook/website Friday before competition.